“RELIEF FROM RESENTMENT”

The most difficult thing you will do as a believer is to _____ someone who hurt you and _____ them from your desire to see them _____ too.

Many believers forfeit daily _____, waiting to see _____ exacted on an enemy.

Resentment: _____ from being wronged by someone in the past.

Resentment lives in your _____ where nobody can _____ it but you?

Many are _____ resentment for people who have no _____ they are.

Resentment continually _____ the past, which _____ it to keep growing.

1 Samuel 18:7-9 King Saul resented _____ because of his _____ with the people.

It harbors your _____ to see them _____, especially those seeming to be doing better than you think they should be, after they hurt you!

Resentment recycles the painful _____ of your past throughout your neurological and cardiological system, keeping it fresh and _____ in your life.

_____ could have resented his _____ but forgave them instead.

Genesis 37

You forever desire to experience your _____ justice, wanting to see them suffer.

The Answer: Fret not thyself because of evil doers.... Psalm 37:1-40
