

TIME IN THE WORD 37
with Dr. Torrance Jacko

“Failure Isn’t Final”

You didn’t do it the right way. You missed the _____ and it seems impossible to do it right. Looks like the more you try, the _____ you get let-down!

Failure is a _____ of life. When you understand it from the _____ perspective, it takes on a _____ meaning in your life. Failure isn’t Final...

We are _____ Failures, though we will fail at different times. We want to make 100% on every _____ but the reality is that we _____. We are all living in human flesh and Flesh Fails. What makes us come up short is our Flesh.

God’s Word tells us how to _____ with the flesh and all of its imperfections. We are responsible for learning how and then _____ it.

Failure will do one of three things in your life:

1. Failure will _____ you.
2. Failure will _____ you.
3. Failure will _____ you.

The key to winning is to _____ from them and _____ them.

Philippians 3:13 is God’s _____.

Learn from your mistakes, then _____ them behind forever,
_____ to remember them again!
